Kia ora te whanau,

Catholic Character

Blessed are they who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be satisfied.

Understanding the fourth beatitude turns on understanding what Jesus meant by righteousness. In ancient Judaism, righteousness meant “to acquit, vindicate, restore to a right relationship.” The righteous are those who maintain right relationships—with God and with the people around them. It flows from meekness (the third beatitude) because we can only form right relationships with others when we cease making all our actions revolve around ourselves. © 2014 by the Theology of Work Project, Inc.

A prayer for this beatitude you can use with your family:

Grant us, Lord God, a vision of our land as your love would make it:

- a land where the weak are protected, and none go hungry or poor;
- a land where the benefits of civilised life are shared, and everyone can enjoy them;
- a land where different races and cultures live in tolerance and mutual respect;
- a land where peace is built with justice, and justice is guided by love.

And give us the inspiration and courage to build it, through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Shark Bio Poems — Room 2

A selection of Shark Bio poems created by our very talented Room 2 students.

Hammerhead Shark Bio poem

Hammerhead shark
Graceful, Fierce, Cute
Lover of fish of all types
Who is able to whack people with Hammer shaped head
Who feels peaceful when swimming around
Who wonders why people are scared of them
Who would like to live in a world without humans
Who dreams where the best fish are

Triakis Semifaciata (Leopard Shark)

Lover of Anchovies herring and topsmelt
Who is able to kill without mercy
Who feels violent when stalking prey
Who wonders when it's next meal is
Who fears being accidentally caught
Who would like to eat a lot more
Who dreams of a large bay with thousands of cancridae (crabs) in it

Tiger Shark Bio poem

3 words that describe them are fierce, peering, stalking.
Lover of seals, smaller sharks, fish.
Who is able to tear through bones and rip off limbs.
Who feels mad when people chop off their fins and then chuck them back in the water to suffer.
Who wonders why people fear, hate and want to kill them.
Who fears fishermen cutting their fins off and bigger sharks.
Who would like to rip off the fishermen's limbs.
Who dreams of waters with no pollution and no predators.

Otari Parish News

Otari Parish Council Elections

The elections of FIVE members to the Parish Council are to take place at Masses this weekend. The biographies of the candidates are in the foyers of both churches.

This Sunday is Trinity Sunday. The Readings can be found at <http://www.usccb.org/bible/readings/061117.cfm>

Pope Francis has described how the Trinity is a family of three persons, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit which is not closed in on itself, but it is open.
