'Family Violence - It's not OK!' Karori campaign.

On Monday, 7th August 2017, Samuel Marsden School is hosting an Information Evening presented by the 'Family Violence - It's not OK!' Karori campaign. You will be able to hear from campaign champion, Jeremy Eparaima. As a child, Jeremy experienced violence at home and at school. For a time, as an adult, he became a perpetrator of violence against his own family, before finding a way to break the cycle. Jeremy has now been violence free for over 10 years.

Doors open from 6.30pm with light refreshments, and the event starts at 7pm in the auditorium. Admission is free, but please email itsnotokkarori@gmail.com to register your interest in the event.

Due to its content, this event is recommended for over 16's only.
